

Frequently Asked Questions from: ccskids.org/faq

• How are individual children chosen for a scholarship? Most scholarship sites have a scholarship committee, which works closely with the Pastor of the congregations. This committee chooses the children according to need and ability. Many more request are received than can be granted, so scholarships are precious.

• In some countries, CCCS pays teacher's salaries, why is that?

In Guinea, Liberia, and Chad the CCCS reaches more children through assisting with teachers' salaries. In these countries, because of the numbers of children, attending school is dependent upon having teachers. Teachers' salaries range from $30-$70 a month.

• Is tuition charged at the schools? Yes tuition is charged, however, exceptions are made for those who cannot pay. Tuition in Guinea is 25 cents US plus a kilo of rice. At the boarding school in Tinquipaya, Bolivia, the tuition for each child is 20 pounds of potatoes, eight eggs, $1.50 and six pounds of another food product.

Beginning January 30: Students may buy a Heart for Hope for $1. Students may use the trees to decorate their lockers or share the gift of giving by giving a heart to a friend or family member!
